The Planning Board's mission is to consult with the New Castle County Land Use Department (the "Department") concerning the work performed by the Department and, further, to review the proposed comprehensive development plan and all proposed amendments and revisions to the Unified Development Code, including proposed zoning and subdivision regulations. After review of any such proposals, the Board shall report to County Council its recommendations with respect to actions to be taken in connection with such proposals.

Further specificity of the Board’s function can be found in the New Castle County Code:

In December of 2012, the Board heard, discussed, and issued a written decision Application No. 2012-0699-SV, wherein the Applicant sought relief from the limit on the number of lots permitted upon a public street that ends in a cul-de-sac, as set forth in section 40.20.230 (J) of the New Castle County Code. Specifically, the Applicant requested the Board approve a subdivision variance that would allow Applicant to build 39 homes along a cul-de-sac, when the Code limits the number of such homes to 16. The Board ultimately accepted the recommendation of the Department and denied the subdivision variance request. The Applicant subsequently appealed the Planning Board's decision to the New Castle County Council. In February 2013, County Council issued a decision overturning the Board's decision.¹
