NCCPD Seeks Public's Assistance in Burglary Investigation

The New Castle County Police are seeking information and anyone who may recognize a vehicle of interest in a Hockessin area burglary investigation from May 29th.

(Hockessin, DE 19707) On Friday May 29, 2015 at approximately 8:00 am, New Castle County Police Patrol responded to small business in the 600 block of Yorklyn Road in Hockessin for the report of a burglary that occurred overnight. During the burglary, several items of value were removed from the business. Evidence on the scene revealed the suspect's path of escape near another local business. Video surveillance from the rear of that other area business captured a vehicle drive to its parking lot. In the video, what appears to be a white male, driving a 2003-2005 White Chevrolet Cavalier (4 Door Sedan) is seen coming and going from the area during the time of occurrence. The vehicle has a distinctive front bumper (see photographs below), stock wheels, and appears to have temporary tags. The vehicle is seen driving to and from the direction of Valley Road on Lancaster Pike in Hockessin. This vehicle and its operator are considered subjects of interest in this investigation.
