NCCPD Responds to Multiple Criminal Mischiefs (Slashed Tires)

New Castle County Patrol units responded to numerous criminal mischief complaints early this morning where multiple victim's tires were slashed overnight.

(Wilmington, DE 19808) In the early morning hours of Thursday, July 30, 2015, County Police patrol units responded to the Community of Fairway Falls, Wilmington, for the report of multiple vehicles with slashed tires. Arriving units located several vehicles with damage to the tires. Throughout the morning, as many as 6 different victims have been identified and reports have been filed. The majority of the victims lived in the 3200 block of Champions Drive near the intersection of Doral Drive within that community.

There is no suspect information at this time and County Police are seeking anyone with information or surveillance of the area to please call the New Castle County Police Department at (302) 573-2800.
