

Statement about the violence at the US Capitol on January 6, 2021:

The New Castle County Ethics Commission unanimously condemns the indefensible violence which occurred in Washington D.C. on January 6, 2021, as well as the rhetoric and actions which led to that assault on our country. While dissent and free speech are treasured and protected American values, riotous behavior can never be tolerated and is a threat to our form of government, whether at the national, state, or county and local level. We call on all citizens, whether elected to government office or not, to protect against any future assaults on our democracy. We urge all Americans to demand accountability for past or current actions associated with the events on January 6th and to move forward honestly, openly, peacefully, and ethically.
